who is recommended for discharge as an Invalid.
 [To be filled up by the Medical Officers doing duty with Regiments and Corps serving at Home, or by the Medical Officer in charge of the Station Hospital, and by the Medical Officers in charge of Divisions at Netley in the cases of Invalids from Abroad, in accordance with the instruction contained in the Queen's Regulations, to which attention is particularly called.]

QUESTIONS.

ANSWERS.

Answers to these questions to be as full and as accurate as possible, and to be filled in by the Medical Officer by whom the Soldier is brought forward for discharge.

1. What is the disability unfitting him for service?
2. Its Origin, Date, Progress, Extent and present condition. Whether the same is the result of Climate, Military Service, or of Epidemic or Endemic Causes, or has been aggravated by Intemperance or other vice, or by Misconduct? In Ophthalmia it should be stated particularly how the disease was contracted.
3. A full description of Gunshot or other Wounds or Injuries should be given, and it should be stated whether they were received in action, or under circumstances contingent upon service before the Enemy, or in the discharge of some act of Military Duty, or by Accident, or by his own fault, and by what weapon they were inflicted. If the Wound or Injury be of distant date, the extent of inconvenience or discomfort continuing therefrom should be stated.
4. If not caused by his service as a soldier, to what extent, if any, has it been aggravated by such service? Explain your reasons.
5. Did the cause or disease from which the disability has arisen prevail in the Regiment or at the Station?
6. Is the disability permanent? If not, state its probable duration. In either case, to what extent will it prevent his earning a livelihood in civil occupation?

In Memoriam

ARTHUR CLAUDE PAPWORTH

We record with sorrow the death of Arthur Claude Papworth - generally known as Claude - at Epsom on the 19th November.

He was well known locally having worked as a groom/gardener with Major Pemberton Steddall at Pitfield House on the Hog's Back for some 30 years until moving to Dun Romin in The Street in 1957. Here he celebrated his golden Wedding in 1963 moving to Epsom in 1970 where he enjoyed his retirement after a long and eventful life.

Claude was born in 1884 and was a real old soldier having served with the 7th Hussars for 21 years until discharge in 1922. He saw service in S. Africa and India and was in the mounted military police for a time.

Of erect and military bearing he was an accomplished horseman and a well known local character. He was selected to be a Standard Bearer for the British Legion at the coronation of King George VI. He was remembered by the local Branch every Christmas and in appreciation his next-of-kin sent a substantial donation to the Branch fund which was gratefully received.

Our deep sympathy goes to all his family on the loss of a much loved and fine old gentleman.

3 Dec 1908 It is with sincere regret that I have to record the death of Sergeant Kyran Whelan, who passed away at the residence of his son-in-law, Webb street, on November 27, in his seventy-sixth year. He was one of the fast-diminishing band of veteran soldiers who saw service in the North Island in the early sixties. He was born in Ireland in 1833 and served in the Chinese war of 1860-1 under General Gordon. On returning to England he was made a recruiting sergeant in the 2nd Battalion of the 14th Regiment, came with his regiment to New Zealand and took part in the Māori war. He saw service in the Waikato and at Waitara and when the Regiment was ordered Home became a member of the Armed Constabulary stationed in Taranaki. When the district was vacated by the Constabulary he was left in charge at Opunake, and later, when the force was merged into the police, he was appointed sergeant of police for the Patea district. He remained in the police force until 1898, when he retired on pension (with a record of 50 years army and police service to his credit). The deceased leaves five daughters, all of whom are married and settled in different parts of New Zealand. A requiem Mass was celebrated in St Mary of the Angels' Church, followed by the interment in the Mount Street Cemetery. The Rev Father Schaefer, S.M., officiated at the graveside, R.I.P.
